What is Tele Counselling?

In Telephone counselling, people in distress can seek consultation on telephone.

Who can avail Tele-Counselling ?

Those who live in places where no local counselors are available and those who would not like to discuss problems face to face but would like to consult from the comfort of their homes, can resort to tele-counselling.

Clients who live overseas (outside India) but like to consult a Psychologist of their own country and cultural ethos, can consult through telephone.

Sessions are scheduled normally once a week but can be increased to twice a week in specific cases if needed.

What are the Charges ?

For residents outside India: US $ 45 for 30 minute session and US $ 80 for 60 minute session.

How can I make the payment ?
